The woolen market has literally brought the clothing business to its knees. It has served only to put Saks' more firmly on their feet!

 We have actually at this writing the biggest selection of overcoats in all our history. We are showing more variety in fabrics than ever before in our lives, and more models as a consequence of that variety. And in the matter of tailoring, whether you consider the cut, or the work of assembling, whether you look at their lines or their delicately matched skeleton linings, whether you consider them in detail or as a whole, you will find them as near perfect as human effort can produce, and equal in style to the smartest creations of Fifth Avenue Tailors.
